Marcum LLP has merged in Meyers, Harrison & Pia LLC and Meyers, Harrison & Pia Valuation and Litigation Support, LLC, adding 55 partners and staff in New Haven, Conn., and Portland, Maine, to the Top 100 firm.

MHP dates back to 1954 and specializes in business valuation, forensic accounting and litigation support services. The firm's partners frequently serve as expert witnesses during legal disputes. Financial terms of the deal were not disclosed.

“Meyers, Harrison & Pia’s deep expertise in valuation and litigation support and its broad offering in traditional tax, audit and accounting make the firm a perfect strategic fit for Marcum,” said Marcum managing partner Jeffrey M. Weiner in a statement. “MHP CEO Mark Harrison and his partners have built a highly respected practice that is well recognized within the litigation support and valuation specialty. The entire MHP team will be an outstanding new asset to Marcum’s clients as well as an additional resource to Marcum’s partners and staff.”

Marcum, based in New York, ranked 16th on Accounting Today’s list of the Top 100 Firms, with $449 million in annual revenue.

“Joining Marcum will give MHP’s clients and staff significantly greater resources as well as access to a deep bench of talent across the firm’s practice areas, including in advisory services,” Harrison said in a statement. He will become partner-in-charge of Valuation & Litigation Services at Marcum and will also join the Marcum Executive Committee.
