

David C. Bukzin

David C. Bukzin is vice chairman of Marcum LLP and leader of the Firm's National SEC Services practice. He also serves as Office Managing Partner and Assurance Services Leader in New York City.

Mr. Bukzin has more than 20 years of experience advising clients on SEC policies, practices and procedures and has an in-depth knowledge of the finance and management of closely held businesses.

Mr. Bukzin founded and spearheads several of the Firm's practice areas. As SEC Services leader, he assists clients with regulatory compliance issues, complex deal structures, raising capital and formulating strategic plans and alliances. He serves as publisher of the Firm's newsletter SEC Insights, a monthly publication of current issues facing publicly traded companies.

Mr. Bukzin also is a member of the Firm's High Tech Industry group and assists clients with services in the areas of turnaround and workout consulting, reorganizations, and recapitalizations. In addition, he has been a Certified Valuation Analyst and specialized in business valuations involving mergers and acquisitions and corporate finance transactions.

As an integral member of Marcum's Executive and New York Regional Management Committees, he shares his knowledge and provides guidance internally for the Firm's operations, strategic planning, practice development, and client service.

Prior to joining the Firm, Mr. Bukzin was a partner at a small New York City practice that experienced tremendous growth under his leadership. That practice subsequently merged with Marcum to form the Firm's New York City office.
