

James W. Miller

ASSURANCE SERVICES

James W. Miller is an integral member of the Firm's National Construction Industry group and is located in the Firm's Long Wharf Drive office in New Haven, Connecticut. He has more than 13 years of experience compiling, reviewing and analyzing financial statements for construction contractors and other allied companies.

He has also been involved in high profile and sensitive engagements regarding fraud and litigation support and due diligence projects for business acquisitions.

A sought-after speaker on construction accounting and auditing matters, Mr. Miller has conducted internal training seminars and presented on issues and updates regarding the construction industry and construction engagements. In addition, Mr. Miller has applied his knowledge and expertise to the success of two large engagements for universities within Connecticut.

Mr. Miller's specialties include troubleshooting problem job performance for construction projects and recommending practices to enhance profitability. He has considerable experience with construction claims matters and has provided litigation support services in this area. Additionally, Mr. Miller has an in-depth knowledge of systems analysis and tailoring of accounting software to meet clients' needs.

Mr. Miller began his career at Marcum in 2002.
