

Joanne Cristiano

TAX & BUSINESS SERVICES

Joanne Cristiano is a partner in the Tax & Business Services department of the Firm's New Haven, Connecticut office and is partner-in-charge of Accounting Services for New England. She has more than 25 years experience in the public accounting industry working with small to medium closely held and family-controlled businesses. She serves a client base in a variety of industries including medical practices, manufacturing, wholesale and distribution, and restaurant operations. Within the Accounting Services division, Ms. Cristiano assists in developing CPE programs and other internal aids for the professional staff and serves on a national committee for the purpose of advancing technology used within the Firm.

Ms. Cristiano entered the field of public accounting in 1989. During her tenure with the Firm's forerunner, she managed its continuing professional education (CPE) curriculum for staff members and spearheaded advancements in technology, including a paperless office. As a member of its Audit & Accounting team, she was tasked with setting and maintaining the highest standards of quality control procedures and review required in the industry.
