

Natalie Verbanac

ASSURANCE SERVICES

Natalie Verbanac is an assurance services partner in Marcum's New York City office. She is a member of its SEC Practice Group and its Food & Beverage Services Group. She has more than 20 years of experience providing assurance services including audits of financial statements and internal controls, and due diligence services to clients nationally and internationally in a wide range of industries, including food & beverage, retail and consumer products, life sciences and healthcare technology, manufacturing and distribution, and advertising in both the private and public sector.

Ms. Verbanac has extensive experience auditing SEC reporting companies with various complex equity and derivative transactions and has worked with companies undergoing private and public equity and debt offerings, as well as merger and acquisition transactions. In addition, she performs audits on financial statements prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards and internal quality control inspections to ensure compliance with the audit process.

Ms. Verbanac is an instructor for the Firm's Continuing Education Training Program, at the national and local levels. She is a member of the Firm's Diversity and Inclusion Committee and is involved in its recruiting, mentoring, and volunteer programs.

Prior to joining Marcum, Ms. Verbanac worked in the Assurance Practice for an international public accounting and consulting firm focusing on audit and due diligence services of publicly and privately held companies and audits of employee benefit plans.
