ASSURANCE SERVICES

Timothy J. Landry is a director in the Firm's Quality Control and Technical Review Department. He provides guidance to firm professionals and clients on complex technical accounting and reporting issues. He is also a member of the Firm's National SEC and Construction Industry Groups. He has over 18 years of experience, conducting, reviewing and analyzing financial information for companies that span a variety of industries including energy, manufacturing, distribution, construction, not-for-profit and employee benefit plans.

Mr. Landry offers an array of services to both publicly-held and private companies, such as financial auditing and accounting, merger and acquisition due diligence, consolidations, implementation of new accounting pronouncements and financial analysis. He has been involved in and assisted with initial Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) registrations, as well as ongoing SEC reporting and compliance requirements. Prior to joining the Firm, Mr. Landry spent nine years at a "Big 4" accounting and consulting firm where he was responsible for the audits of various companies in a variety of industries.

Mr. Landry shares his expertise internally to other Firm professionals as an advisor to professional staff on accounting and auditing matters and conducts seminars for staff training.
