Adam Firestein is a partner in the Firm's Assurance Division. He has approximately 20 years of experience providing assurance, accounting, and advisory services to a wide range of clientele, including not-for-profit organizations, employee benefit plans, health care organizations, construction companies and public & private entities.

Mr. Firestein provides guidance to clients ranging from complex accounting issues to general business issues. He develops in-house training seminars for the Firm's professional staff as well as continuing education programs for various outside organizations. His experience includes auditing and reviewing financial statements (including audits under Yellow Book requirements and SEC entities), performing agreed upon procedure engagements and reviewing internal controls. He is responsible for partnering multiple engagements as well as the supervision and training of audit staff.

Mr. Firestein is also a member in the Firm's national practice groups in employee benefit plans, tax exempt organizations, alternative investments, construction and health care.
