Andrew Kantor is a Director in the Accounting Services department at the Firm's New York office. He works very closely with small businesses preparing financial statements and providing consulting, accounting, tax compliance and planning services.

While Mr. Kantor has extensive experience helping privately-held, small businesses in a variety of industries, he has developed a specialization in providing business services to closely-held family businesses, particularly professional services organizations. He has skillfully guided numerous clients through the compliance process ensuring they stay compliant while meeting timely, financial and tax deadlines.

Mr. Kantor joined the Firm in 1998 and was promoted to Director in 2014. Previously, he was with a national accounting firm where he gained experience working with small businesses.
