

CHARLES E. STRICKLAND III, ASA/CFE

DIRECTOR ► CURRICULUM VITAE

charles.strickland@marcumllp.com

EXPERIENCE

Charles Strickland is a director in the Valuation, Forensic & Litigation Services practice group. Strickland has been deemed an expert in forensic accounting and the location of unreported income and assets. He has performed valuations of business interests for a variety of purposes including, but not limited to, family law matters, business damages, buy-sell agreements, shareholder litigation, estate and gift tax matters, buying and selling businesses, and breach of contract. He also has experience in matters involving economic damages, including the determination of damages related to contracts, torts, post-acquisitions disputes, and shareholder disputes.

EXPERT TESTIMONY EXPERIENCE

Mr. Strickland has been qualified as an expert witness in the State Courts of Connecticut, and the New York State Supreme Court.

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

ASA – Accredited Senior Appraiser (Business Valuation Discipline) Designated by the American Society of Appraisers

CFE – Certified Fraud Examiner Designated by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, Eastern Connecticut State University, 1992

PROFESSIONAL & CIVIC AFFILIATIONS

American Society of Appraisers (ASA)

Connecticut Chapter of American Society of Appraisers

Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (CFE)

Connecticut Chapter of Association of Certified Fraud Examiners

PRESENTATIONS (SINCE 2012)

- Training Event for CT DSS, Adult Protective Services, conducted by The University of New Haven, MS
- Investigations Program, New Haven, CT, January 30 and 31, 2019
- Show Me the Money: Financial Side of Divorce – How to Find the Money, Understand Where It Comes From, and
- Avoid Common Pitfalls in Resolving Finances, Connecticut Bar Association, New Britain, CT, May 2012

PUBLICATIONS (SINCE 2009)

- Every Divorce Should Include a Lifestyle Analysis, NACVA QuickRead, July 2015
- Every Divorce Should Include a Lifestyle Analysis, Connecticut Law Tribune, May 2015

MARCUM
ACCOUNTANTS ▲ ADVISORS

marcumllp.com

CHARLES E. STRICKLAND III, ASA/CFE

DIRECTOR ► CURRICULUM VITAE

charles.strickland@marcumllp.com

- ▶ Every Divorce Should Include a Lifestyle Analysis, MHP Newsletter, March 2015
- ▶ Early Signs That Your Business May Be an Unknown Victim of Fraud, MHP Newsletter, July 2014
- ▶ Painting a Picture of the Parties' True Income in Divorce, MHP Newsletter, August 2013
- ▶ Appearances Are Everything: Finding Hidden Income, Connecticut Law Tribune, August 2011
- ▶ Uncovering Hidden Assets: Dig through Documents to Discover What a Spouse is Really Worth, Connecticut Law Tribune, August 2009