PARTNER-IN-CHARGE ► TAX DEPARTMENT, NYC

212.485.5774 colleen.mchugh@marcumllp.com

Colleen McHugh is partner-in-charge of Marcum's New York City Tax Department, where she oversees tax and business services to high net worth individuals and business clients in more than two dozen industries. Ms. McHugh additionally serves as partner-in-charge of the national Tax Department of Marcum's Alternative Investments Group, which serves the audit, tax, and consulting needs of both emerging and established fund managers.

Her practice specialization is partnership and private equity taxation. She has more than 15 years of experience advising private equity funds, their general partnerships, and management companies on complex tax matters, including international and state and local tax compliance.

Prior to joining Marcum in 2013, Colleen served in the private equity group of a "Big 4" public accounting firm. Previously, she spent two years in the Washington National Tax group of another "Big 4" firm, where she specialized in partnership taxation.
