ACCOUNTING SERVICES

Daniel Castellano is a partner in Marcum's Accounting Services Group, specializing in strategic planning and tax planning for closely-held construction companies and their executives. He also possesses practical experience in surety and bonding enhancement, mergers and acquisitions and financial negotiations.

Mr. Castellano has authored numerous articles and is a frequent lecturer of construction accounting and taxation to bonding companies and banks.

Actively involved in the community, Mr. Castellano is a proud supporter of organizations including the Cooley's Anemia Foundation, Suffolk Chapter; Contractors for Kids; Sunrise Day Camp; Long Island Cares; and Long Island Alzheimer's Foundation.

Mr. Castellano came to Marcum after the Firm joined forces with Castellano, Korenberg & Company in 2020.
