Kathleen E. Suker is a senior manager in Marcum's National Advisory/ Business Valuation Group and is also a member of its Forensic/Litigation Support practice group. Ms. Suker primarily offers business valuation services to owners of closely-held businesses for use in gifting, estate planning, shareholder disputes and matrimonial dissolutions.

In addition to providing business valuation services, Ms. Suker works with clients on matters related to commercial litigation, economic damages, lost profits, business interruption and fraud investigations. She has worked with counsel to develop case strategies, has assisted with depositions and with preparing reports and exhibits for trial.

Ms. Suker has served as a testifying expert witness and is approved to accept appointments as an accountant and business appraiser in several counties of New York State pursuant to NYS Part 36 of the Rules of the Chief Judge.

Ms. Suker frequently speaks at industry organizations and writes articles for the Firm's newsletter Forensic Files on topics related to valuation, economic damages, forensic accounting, shareholder agreements and lost wage calculations.

Prior to joining the Firm, Ms. Suker was with a boutique accounting firm where she specialized in analyzing complex business interruption and lost profit claims for companies ranging from mid-size to Fortune 500.
