Ken Levinson is a Tax & Business Services director in Marcum's San Francisco office. Mr. Levinson has over 40 years of experience providing tax and consulting services to individuals and small businesses.

Prior to joining Marcum in 2023, he was president of Kornetsky, Levinson & Company. Mr. Levinson's career experience includes positions with "Big 4" firms and regional accounting firms, as well as internal accounting positions at a large aerospace company. He also has a deep understanding of nonprofits, having served as a fundraising consultant and executive director of a New York nonprofit organization.

Mr. Levinson's main community focus is a national leadership program that he started in 1996 for high school students called the LOFT: Leadership Opportunities for Teens. His multiple community service activities over the years resulted in his being honored with the CalCPA's Distinguished Public Service Award in 1987.
