

Kurt Koegl

TAX AND BUSINESS SERVICES

Kurt R. Koegl is a partner in Marcum LLP's New York City office. He has 15 years of tax accounting experience, specializing in the real estate industry. He has served clients with a broad mix of operations, including residential, commercial, hospitality, mixed use, infrastructure, real estate backed financial instruments, and construction. Mr. Koegl has experience with public and private REITs, traditional real estate funds, private equity, fund of funds, venture capital, Fortune 500 public companies, inbound and outbound foreign investments, domestic, international, state and local tax compliance, reporting, planning and structuring.

He works closely with his clients to manage tax compliance and analyze, research, discuss, plan, and memorialize tax policy and positions. Mr. Koegl assists clients in planning or reviewing existing client structures for foreign, federal, and state tax expense, exposure, efficiency, and filing requirements.

Prior to joining Marcum, Mr. Koegl was a senior manager at a "Big Four" accounting firm in the New York Real Estate tax practice, where he served public and private clients with a specialization in real estate funds and REITs.
