

■ Education & Designations

CPA – Certified Public Accountant, conferred by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants

ABV – Accredited in Business Valuation, conferred by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants

CFF – Certified in Financial Forensics, conferred by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants

MBA – Masters in Business Administration, University of Miami

BSM – Bachelor of Science in Management, Tulane University

Extensive continued education in the areas of matrimonial dissolution, business valuation and forensic accounting.

■ Professional History

Marcum LLP, Partner-in-Charge of Valuation, Forensic & Litigation Services Group in the SE Region,
March 1995 - present

Plave, Freeman and Goldberg, Inc., Litigation Consultant, 1994 - March 1995

Grossberg Company, CPAs, Staff Accountant, 1990 - 1992

■ Professional & Civic Affiliations

- American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA)
- Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants (FICPA)
- Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE)
- Kidside, Board of Directors
- Marcum Foundation, Board of Directors

■ Range of Experience

Marc Breslow is a partner-in-charge of the Firm's Valuation, Forensic & Litigation Services group for the SE Region. Mr. Breslow has an excess of 30 years of experience, including more than 25 years specialized in forensic accounting.

He manages complex marital dissolution engagements involving high net worth individuals and has an integral role in mediations and settlement conferences. Mr. Breslow offers insight to attorneys throughout the settlement and negotiation process, including the negotiation of alimony, child support, and valuation of assets and liabilities to determine equitable distribution of property.

As a qualified expert witness, Mr. Breslow regularly testifies in court.

Throughout his career, Mr. Breslow has analyzed investor claims and distribution to unsecured creditors. Additionally, he has provided accounting, investigative and administrative services to a court appointed receiver in a shareholder dispute, ultimately involving the wind-down and liquidation of the entity.

Mr. Breslow is experienced in analyzing documentation, interviewing employees, and performing investigative analysis in relation to cases of fraud.

*Licensed by the State of Florida