Nina Quarequio is a partner in the Firm's Assurance Services Division. Ms. Quarequio provides auditing, financial reporting and consulting services to public and private companies. Her client base includes businesses within the technology, life sciences, pharmaceutical, manufacturing and distribution industries. Ms. Quarequio is a member of the Firm's national Capital Markets group.

Ms. Quarequio has more than 25 years of professional experience. Her experience includes public offerings, reverse mergers, going private, and Sarbanes-Oxley 404 implementation. She is also a trusted advisor to her closely held entrepreneurial and investor-backed private clients, and understanding and applying complex accounting topics. Ms. Quarequio primarily works with mid-to small-cap companies involved with mergers and acquisitions and capital financing transactions. She also advises private companies going public on initial public offerings and the securities registration process.

Prior to joining the Firm, she served as vice president of finance for a public company and chief financial officer for a private company. In addition, Ms. Quarequio has held positions within a "Big 4" accounting practice.
