

CPA Practice Advisor

<https://www.cpapracticeadvisor.com/firm-management/news/21091332/marcum-acquires-miamibased-ogh-cpas>

FIRM MANAGEMENT MARCUM ACQUIRES MIAMI-BASED OGH CPAS

Marcum Acquires Miami-Based OGH CPAs

AUGUST 5, 2019

National accounting and advisory firm Marcum LLP has acquired OGH Certified Public Accountants & Advisors of Miami, Florida, which will join the firm's Southeast Region effective August 1. The transaction expands Marcum's presence in South Florida, adding two partners and 17 associates and a second office in Miami.

OGH was a full-service CPA firm offering assurance, tax and accounting, consulting, and property management services to clients in 10 industry sectors. The firm focused primarily on real estate developers, construction companies, and real estate investors; export and wholesale distributors; and domestic and international tax services. Hiram D. Ocariz, CPA, is office managing partner.

"OGH's strong position in a gateway city to the global economy, industry specialization, and culture based on integrity, excellence, strong client relationships and measurable results make OGH a perfect fit for Marcum. We welcome the team to our firm and look forward to our continued mutual success," said Jeffrey M. Weiner, Marcum's chairman and chief executive officer.

"OGH's focused expertise is an additional asset in several of Marcum's core industry groups, while also bringing experience in several new industries to our South Florida region," said Michael Balter, Marcum's Southeast regional managing partner. In addition to the two Miami offices, Marcum also has Florida offices in Fort Lauderdale and West Palm Beach.

"My partner, our staff and I are delighted to be joining Marcum, where we will be able to access national resources for the benefit of our clients, while having the opportunity to deepen the bench of talent in Marcum's South Florida region," Ocariz said.