The Rhode Island CPA firm Piccerelli, Gilstein & Company, LLP (PG&Co) has merged into Marcum LLP.

Five partners and 25 associates join Marcum from PG&Co. In addition, the firm adds a second Providence office to Marcum's New England footprint.

PG&Co Managing Partner Michael M. Tikoian, CPA, MBA, becomes Marcum's office managing partner at the new location.

Founded in 1973, PG&Co served an extensive portfolio of closely held clients, with specializations in the real estate, healthcare, and nonprofit sectors.

"PG&Co has a long history of service, independence, integrity and commitment to our clients. Marcum's client service standards and core values correlate strongly to our culture. We have the highest expectations for this merger and the numerous ways it will benefit our clients, some of whom have been with our firm for decades," Mr. Tikoian said.

"Marcum welcomes the entire PG&Co team to the Firm and looks forward to our collaboration," said Jeffrey M. Weiner, Marcum's chairman and chief executive officer.

"Providence is a growing center of strength in our New England region. As part of Marcum, PG&Co's leaders will help shape the future of our firm throughout the area," said Anthony P. Scillia, Marcum's New England regional managing partner.

Allan D. Koltin, CEO of Koltin Consulting Group, who advised both firms on the merger commented, "Marcum continues to excel in attracting and combining with high-performing, entrepreneurial firms like Piccerelli, Gilstein. This combination makes Marcum a major Rhode Island force going forward.”
