

PAUL J. GRANNEY

STATE & LOCAL TAX LEADER ► TAX & BUSINESS SERVICES

617.807.5090

paul.graney@marcumllp.com

Paul J. Granney is a partner in the State and Local Tax (SALT) practice, in the Firm's Boston office. Mr. Granney has more than 30 years of multistate tax experience with the government and delivering state local tax services to corporate enterprises.

Mr. Granney specializes in multistate corporate income, sales/use, meals tax, and personal income tax examinations and appeals. He has a strong focus on handling state tax controversy and developments throughout the New England area.

Mr. Granney joined the Firm in 2006. As the former tax director at a large, local multifaceted company, he was responsible for all facets of the company's taxes. He also was the State and Local Tax practice leader at a large international firm. Earlier in his career, he was the chief of audit at the Massachusetts Department of Revenue. He was responsible for the field audit activities of over 650 auditors and administrative personnel.

Professional & Civic Affiliations

University of New Haven, Adjunct Professor
National Association of Enrolled Agents, Member
Massachusetts Society of Enrolled Agents, Member

Articles & Presentations

Featured in "Daily Tax Report", Bloomberg BNA, August 2017
Featured in "Daily Tax Report", Bloomberg BNA, April 2017
Featured in "Daily Tax Report", Bloomberg BNA, February 2017
Featured in "The tax man can treat BofA as Mass. resident, SJC rules",
Boston Business Journal, July 2016
Featured in "The debate in California over how owners can use LLCs to obscure their identities", Los Angeles Times, April 2016

EXPERTISE

- Multistate Taxation
- Sales/Use
- Meals Tax
- Personal Income Tax
- Audit Representation
- Corporate Income Tax

INDUSTRY FOCUS

- Construction
- High Tech
- Software

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Science, Finance
Babson College

MARCUM
ACCOUNTANTS ▲ ADVISORS

marcumllp.com