Ray is an Assurance partner in Marcum's San Francisco office. He has more than 25 years of experience serving public and privately held clients in diverse industries, focusing on growth-oriented technology, manufacturing, real estate and hospitality companies. Ray's career is highlighted with successes leading complex audit initiatives for organizations ranging from Main Street to Fortune 500, including venture capital and private equity-backed companies. He has spearheaded IPO, financing, and transaction work, advising domestic and international organizations. Ray also brings deep audit and financial expertise in business acquisitions and transactions supporting carve-outs, spinoffs, and debt and equity offerings.

Prior to joining Marcum, Ray served as an Assurance partner in the Northern California practice of a Big Four accounting firm, and as a leader in that firm's Global Assurance "Private Client Services" group, focused on serving middle-market companies.
