Roger Gingerich is a partner with Marcum LLP. He specializes in helping clients grow and develop their businesses through proactive and strategic tax solutions and advising on business and financial matters. As an advisor, he assists clients in achieving financial goals, growing their businesses and developing internal accounting procedures to streamline and safeguard the record-keeping process.

Roger is the Midwest leader of Marcum's Construction Industry Group and has experience servicing numerous construction and real estate companies. He is also an advisory partner for the Valuation & Litigation Advisory Services Group and has experience in the valuation of privately-held businesses and business interests. He spends a portion of his time on valuations in connection with acquisitions, sales, litigation, domestic disputes, and estate and succession planning. In this role, he assists business owners, entrepreneurs, and investors in buying and selling businesses including deal structuring, performing due diligence at the tax and financial level, and advising on financing alternatives.

Roger earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration in Accounting at The Ohio State University. He also holds the following credentials: (CPA) Certified Public Accountant, (CVA) Certified Valuation Analyst, and (CCA) Certified Construction Auditor.
