Liz Eun is a partner in the Managed (Accounting) Services Department in the Firm's Washington, DC office. Ms. Eun came to Marcum via the Firm's merger with Raffa, PC., one of the nation's preeminent public accounting and business consulting firms, specializing in nonprofits. She has approximately 30 years of experience providing audit, accounting, and tax services to her broad client base and has led the Managed Accounting Services Department for approximately 20 years.

Ms. Eun's clientele consists of nonprofit entities, including national and international charitable organizations, trade associations and private foundations, and for-profit businesses. She leads a team that provides an array of accounting, consulting, and business advisory services including assessments of financial operations, outsourced accounting/financial management services, and interim CFO services.

She has taught seminars on topics related to nonprofit accounting and reporting and has written a number of articles on accounting and human resources (HR) outsourcing for the journal of the American Society of Association Executives (ASAE).
